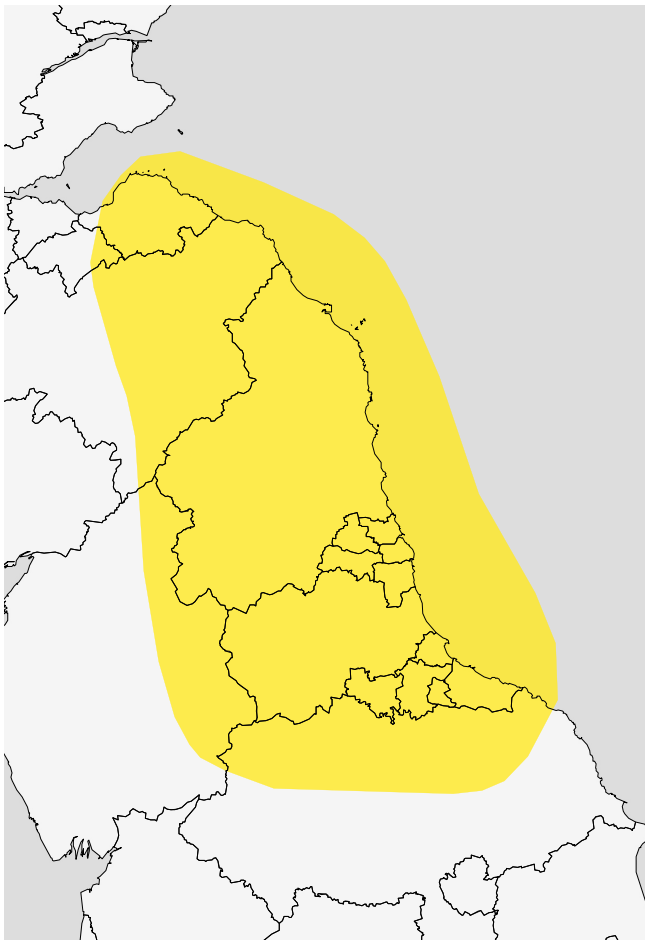
Yellow warning
Thunderstorm

Between
18:00 Sat 29 Jun 2019 and
23:59 Sat 29 Jun 2019



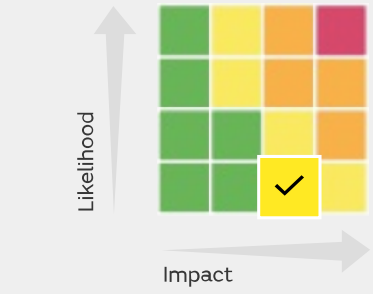
Thunderstorms may affect parts of northern England and southeast Scotland this evening

What to expect

- Where flooding or lightning strikes occur, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and sudden flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a chance that power cuts could occur and other services to some homes and businesses could be lost
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded quickly, with damage to some buildings from floodwater, lightning strikes or hail

Further details

Although many places will miss the worst, thunderstorms seem likely to develop across parts of northern England and southeast Scotland later on Saturday, perhaps focused towards eastern coasts. Lightning strikes, hail and gusty winds are possible, while 20 to 30 mm of rain may fall within an hour in a few locations.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
